Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

1. Is there a minimum night stay?

Yes. Minimum night stays with maximum enjoyment! Stays start from 3 nights. See our list of properties here and the corresponding minimum nights.

2. Can I bring visitors?

As Bajans we love to entertain, but this is restricted to a maximum of 50% of the max occupancy of the property on an occasional basis. For example, a 3-bedroom home with a max of 6 persons can entertain an additional 3 people. Like Cinderella, visitors must vacate the property by midnight. We can't promise you a prince/princess, however.

3. Can I have an event or party at the villa?

Lights, camera, and... easy on the action, please. We're happy to fulfil your needs but you will need to party responsibly (unlike Cinderella.) Entertaining more than the 50% max occupancy means an event fee will apply and some properties are more restrictive than others. When our guests are happy, we are too. We also like to keep our neighbours happy, so please don't turn your voice or the device's volume all the way up. Let us know your plans so we can guide you accordingly.

4. Is there an additional cost for an event or party?

Any entertaining over the additional 50% of max occupancy is subject to approval and some properties have strict rules against any events or visitors as governed by the building management. In some cases where events are approved, an event fee equal to one night's rental will apply. We'd hate to cut your fun before the grand finale but any guests found to be breaching these rules will be asked to vacate the property without refund.

5. How many people can stay / sleep in the villa?

The maximum occupancy rules are quite strict. Your health & safety is important to us. A rule of thumb is double occupancy per bedroom - with few exceptions. For example, a 3 bedroom villa can have 6 people, a 2 bedroom villa can have 4 people.

6. What does “effective price per bedroom” mean?

Our rates are based on renting the entire villa, not individual rooms. The “effective price per bedroom” simply helps you compare the value of the full property against what you might typically spend on multiple hotel rooms during a Barbados staycation. It's an easy way to understand the cost per couple or bedroom while still enjoying the privacy, space, and amenities of a fully private villa.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) Cont'd

7. Is breakfast or other meals included in rates?

Remember these are vacation homes, not hotels with restaurants. Some of the villas include fantastic cook and chef services but at an additional cost and oh so worth it, see page 6 for further details. For any villas that don't include cook or chef service, we can add it at a cost! Come kick your feet up and let someone else do the cooking for a change.

8. Do I have to pay a security deposit?

Yes. This is standard just like a hotel that would take at least a credit card for potential damage. Security deposit may be reduced for stays less than 5 nights. There are several options. You can provide us with cash, we'll hold and return, pinky swear. Use credit card pre-authorization or wire funds to us which we'll return back to you. If you're having an event you may not want to invite the friend that always breaks things. Your pockets will thank you.

9. Can we get day passes to the villas?

Unfortunately no. Day passes are not offered at this time. Think of it as travelling without travelling, spend at least 3 days or more, and give yourself a holiday enjoying this fantastic place we call home. Tag us @blueskyluxury on your IG.

10. What are the rates?

Rates starting from BDS$268 or US$135.35 (exclusive of taxes and fees)
